Farley Coronation Playing Field
Conflict of Interest Policy

Version: 1 Date: 03FEB2026

The guidelines on managing conflict of interest are contained in our governing document and will be followed at all times, as will the guidance issues by the Commission listed at the end of this policy.

Conflicts of Interest

The Board will make decisions based only on what's best for the Charity. We do not allow personal interests, or the interests of people or organisations connected to board members, to influence these decisions.

There are 2 common types of conflict of interest:

- Financial conflicts - when a trustee, or person or organisation connected to them, could get money or something else of value from a trustee decision. This does not include the payment of expenses.
- Loyalty conflicts - other reasons, a board member might not be able to make decisions that are best for the charity.

Generally, a potential conflict of interest will occur when a board member has a connection to another organisation or person that we have a financial, or other working arrangement with, either as:

- Family – his or her partner, child etc or:
- Organisation – as a trustee, board member, member of staff or similar.

Related Parties

We have a close working relationship with the Farley Cricket Club, and shared values. However, it is both an independent legal entity and a contractual partner.

It is important that we are not only demonstrably independent of them, but also seen to be. Consequently, trustees who have a close personal or working relationship with the Farley Cricket Club or an individual employed by them, should declare this, as a conflict of interest.

This applies to any other organisations with whom we have a contractual relationship.

Meetings

Conflicts of Interest is a standing item on all board and committee agendas; the chairman will remind directors at the start of each meeting that any interests must be declared.

A record of any professional or personal interest that may make it difficult for a director to fulfil their duties impartially, or may create an appearance of impropriety, with any item on the agenda for that day's meeting is to be noted in the minutes of the meeting. Specifically:

- If a member is in any way, directly or indirectly, interested in a proposed transaction or arrangement with the organisation, s/he must declare the nature and extent of that interest to the other directors
- If a declaration of interest proves to be or becomes inaccurate or incomplete, a further declaration must be made
- Any required declaration of interest must be made before the organisation enters into the transaction or arrangement
- A declaration is not required in relation to an interest of which the member is not aware or where the member is not aware of the transaction or arrangement in question. For this purpose a member is treated as being aware of matters of which s/he ought reasonably to be aware.

If a member states a conflict of interest s/he will normally be requested to leave the meeting while the relevant agenda item is discussed.

Potential Conflicts of Interest

A charity may pay and offer other material benefits, to one or more of its trustees to provide services to the charity, where the trustee board reasonably believes it to be in the charity's best interests to do so. The services in question must be ones which the charity trustee provides in addition to carrying out normal trustee duties. Any such proposal would be treated on a case for case basis and would only be approved subject to compliance with the governing document and Charity Commission guidance.

Where an individual is not part of the decision making process, there is no direct conflict of interest. However, where he/she has a relationship with the organisation, or individual trustee/director, the perception could arise that the trustees haven't acted in the organisation's best interests, because of this.

Managing Conflicts of Interest

To manage these issues, the Board will ask themselves the following questions:

- Is this the best use we might make of our limited resources?
- If so, might anyone else be able to provide this service?
- If there are others, in terms of cost, quality, availability etc, who would be the best provider?

Recording Decisions

Conflicts of interest will be recorded in the minutes, together with the key points and decision(s) made, in sufficient detail to enable a reader to understand the issue and the basis on which the decision was made.

Version Control - Approval and Review

Version No	Approved By	Approval Date	Main Changes	Review Period
1.0	Board	03FEB26	Initial draft approved	Annually

Regulatory Guidance

Charity Commission:

- Conflicts of interest: a guide for trustees.
- Payment to trustees
- Selling/leasing to someone connected with the charity
- Trustee disqualification
- Examples of personal benefit

Disclaimer & Legal

This document may be used by non-profits and may not be used on a commercial basis, without our prior written approval. Copyright and all other intellectual property rights of this and any derivatives of this document are retained by Alumna to the fullest extent possible in law.

We are neither lawyers nor accountants, so are unable to offer professional advice. Even if we were, we could not offer advice that would adequately cover all charities or all circumstances. This draft policy is an example only and not intended to be taken into use as is. If you have a regulator other than the Charity Commission, there may be other requirements that are not necessarily included in this example policy.

In using this draft policy, you are accepting that you will take all necessary steps, including seeking professional advice, to ensure the policy approved meets fully your charity's needs and complies with all regulatory and legal guidance and that we have no responsibility whatsoever for any loss or detriment that may arise from using it. I have included links to regulatory guidance, and you can find pro bono support using the Charity Excellence Help Finder.

Ian

Ian McLintock ½ Founder

07595 371 444
ian@charityexcellence.co.uk
www.charityexcellence.co.uk